

Volunteer Opportunity: Join Our Horse Training Team!

Location: The Horse Trust, Speen, Buckinghamshire

Hours: Wednesday (possibility of additional days)

Our Charity:

The Horse Trust is the world's oldest horse charity, providing retirement and respite care for working horses, ponies, and donkeys, alongside advancing equine science and promoting education about horse welfare. Nestled in the beautiful Chiltern Hills, our facilities welcome visitors to engage with our story, meet our residents, and support our vital work.

The Role:

Are you passionate about horses and eager to gain hands-on experience? We're looking for a keen and reliable volunteer to join our training team for one day a week on Wednesdays, with the possibility of additional days.

What we're looking for:

- A strong interest in horse behaviour and training.
- Practical experience working with horses.
- A willingness to help with a variety of tasks, including:
- Bringing horses in and out of the fields.
- Grooming and preparing horses for training.
- Completing general yard duties (mucking out, feeding, etc.).
- Acting as a second person during the horses' training sessions.

What we offer:

- An opportunity to develop your practical skills with horses.
- A chance to work alongside experienced professionals in a supportive environment.
- The satisfaction of making a positive impact on the training and welfare of our horses.

How to Apply

If you are enthusiastic, reliable, and ready to get stuck in, we would love to hear from you! Please get in touch to apply or for more information by emailing info@horsetrust.org.uk (Subject: Training & Development Volunteer)
