

Weekend Tea room Assistant

Job Description

Job Title:	Weekend Tea Room Assistant
Reports to:	Tea Room Manager and Hospitality Manager
Location:	Speen, Buckinghamshire HP27 OPP
Hours:	Weekend availability 12-16:30 and school holidays (hours tbc)
Salary:	Wage dependent on age
Interviews:	Interviews to take place as applications come in
To Apply:	Please email the Hospitality Manager kelly@horsetrust.org.uk with your CV and cover letter explaining why you would be suitable for the role, in no more than one side of A4.
Background:	The Horse Trust, the oldest horse charity in the world, was established in 1886 to help the plight of the working horses of London. Set amongst the rolling Chiltern Hills, The Horse Trust provides a sanctuary for the retirement and respite of modern-day working horses from the Police, Military, Royal Mews, and other charities such as Riding for the Disabled and Horse Rangers. As well as caring for equines rescued locally from abuse or neglect and in need of urgent care. In addition to providing a retirement sanctuary for 140 animals, The Horse Trust Charity is committed to promoting equine health and welfare through training professionals and funding ethical scientific research to reduce disease and suffering for the UK equine population.
The Role:	We are looking for enthusiastic, friendly, and reliable people to join our team on weekends and school holidays. Our Black Beauty Tea Room is a beautifully restored barn where a range of hot and cold drinks, delicious cakes and cream teas are served to the visitors of The Horse Trust. Also located inside the Tea Room is a small gift shop selling Horse Trust merchandise. We are a small and friendly team who enjoy liaising with the public on our open days. In this role you must be prepared to take on all roles when needed such as taking orders (dependent on age), serving, cleaning, washing up, as well as other kitchen hygiene related duties. You will also assist with any gift shop sales. Full training will be provided, and the candidate must be a minimum of 16 years of age.
